

U.S. Vice President Pence in Japan Amid Rising U.S.-North Korea Tensions

Tokyo, April 19 (RHC)-- U.S. Vice President Mike Pence is in Japan for talks with the deputy prime minister and other top Japanese officials amid rising tensions between the U.S. and North Korea.

On Monday, a senior North Korean official said North Korea would begin conducting missile tests weekly, despite demands from the U.S. and other countries for North Korea to put a halt to its nuclear program.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/127462-us-vice-president-pence-in-japan-amid-rising-us-north-korea-tensions>

Radio Habana Cuba