

U.S. indicts Honduran former national police chief on cocaine trafficking charges

New York, May 4 (RHC)-- The former national police chief of Honduras has been charged in a federal court in New York of trafficking tons of cocaine into the United States on behalf of Honduran President Juan Orlando Hernández and the president's already-convicted brother.

The official, Juan Carlos Bonilla, is accused of participating in "extreme violence, including the murder of a rival trafficker, to further the conspiracy." Bonilla once worked closely with the DEA, the U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/221622-us-indicts-honduran-former-national-police-chief-on-cocaine-trafficking-charges>

Radio Habana Cuba