

Hundreds of Migrants Feared Dead in Shipwrecks

Tripoli, September 16 (RHC)-- Hundreds of migrants are feared dead after several shipwrecks in recent days off the coasts of Africa.

In the worst incident, the International Organization for Migration warns up to 500 people died after traffickers rammed their ship off the coast of Malta last week.

The death toll so far this year for migrants at sea is nearly 3,000.
