

Bolivia to Hold CELAC Anti-Graft Meeting

La Paz, November 4 (RHC) -- Senior officials from the member nations of the Community of Latin American and Caribbean States (CELAC) will gather in Bolivia for an anti-graft conference on Nov 8.

The meeting, to be held at Los Tajibos Hotel, in Santa Cruz de la Sierra, is devoted to developing and implementing anti-corruption strategies in the region, organizers said.

Participants include anti-corruption and national planning authorities from the 33 countries that comprise the bloc.

According to sources in La Paz, Bolivia is to take advantage of the meeting to report its own achievements and experiences in the field.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/4523-bolivia-to-hold-celac-anti-graft-meeting>

Radio Habana Cuba