Baseball

The Vegueros of Pinar del Río, current champion of the Cuban Baseball League, beat 3x2 Mexico's Tomateros de Culiacán, and took the crown of the Caribbean Baseball Series-2015.

In a game of pitching, Cuba's Vegueros managed to get minimal advantage and obtained the 1st title of Cuba in the Caribbean classic since 1960, a success that also puts the Antillean Island in the 3rd place among the winners of this tournament with 8 crowns, matched with Mexico, and behind the Dominican Republic (19) and Puerto Rico (14).

The victory went to Yosvany Torres, while Hector Mendoza, who is currently signed within the Yomiuri Giants in Japan League, took his 2nd rescue in the tournament.

With an offensive highlighted by Yulieski Gourriel, with 2 hits, including solo homer that gave the decisive 3rd and final run, and supported by Alfredo Despaigne's, William Saavedra's and Frederich Cepeda's, the latter named the MVP, all with 2 singles.

Against all odds, Cubans barely qualified in 4th place in the qualification round, but then started to make a comeback during the semifinals and won 8-2 over Venezuela's Caribes de Anzoategui. After the Series, the following All-Star Team of the Caribbean Series-2015 was selected.

IOC Flag Flies at Half-Mast in Honor of Mario Vazquez Raña

The President of the International Olympic Committee (IOC), the German Thomas Bach, ordered today that the 5-ring flag flies at half-mast in Lausanne, Switzerland, in honor of the late Mexican coach Mario Vazquez Raña.

“He had an extraordinary merit in the Olympic movement and we will always remember him as a great leader in the Olympic Movement. The Olympic flag at the IOC headquarters in Lausanne will fly at half mast,” determined Bach in an official statement.

He served for decades with great commitment as president of the Pan American Sports Organization (PASO), even to his last moments, he added.

Vazquez Raña, president of the PASO since 1975 and re-elected until 2016, was an outstanding leader of the Latin American Olympic until his death at 82 last Sunday.

The former entrepreneur, IOC member from 1991-2012, also chaired the Mexican Olympic Committee from 1974 to 2001, the Association of National Olympic Committees from 1979-2012 and the Commission for the Olympic Solidarity from 2002-2012.
