

Bolivian Social Movements Express Support for Evo Morales' Re-election in 2019

La Paz, February 4 (RHC)-- In Bolivia, the National Coordination for Change (CONALCAM), which groups the country's social movements, have confirmed its strong support for the 'Yes' campaign towards the re-election of President Evo Morales in the 2019 election.

During a meeting with Bolivian vice President Álvaro García Linera, CONALCAM leader José Domingo Vásquez said that workers support all the programs and initiatives implemented over the past 10 years of President Morales' term to improve the country's economy and the quality of life of the Bolivian people, particularly the poor.

On February 21st, there will be a referendum for Bolivians to vote on whether or not the country's constitution can be changed to allow the current president to run for office for another term.

Radio Habana Cuba