

20 Anti-Trump Protesters Arrested at Trump Rally in California

Los Angeles, April 29 (RHC)-- Around 20 people were arrested in the U.S. city of Costa Mesa, California, after demonstrators took to the streets to protest a Donald Trump rally. Protesters blocked traffic, including the on-ramp to the freeway.

The demonstrations involved both clashes between Trump supporters and protesters, and clashes between protesters and the police clad in riot gear. Several thousand people attended the Trump rally, cheering their candidate on for the California primary which will be held on June 7th.
