

Foreign Minister Bruno Rodríguez Receives Leader of International Organization for Migration

Havana, June 22 (RHC)-- Cuban Foreign Minister Bruno Rodríguez met Tuesday in Havana with the Director General of the International Organization for Migration (IOM), Ambassador William Lacy Swing, who is currently on a working visit to Cuba.

During the exchange, Ambassador Swing praised Cuba's long-lasting cooperation with his organization.

The top Cuban diplomat thanked the IOM leader for the support and assistance the Geneva-based body has provided Cuba, always on the basis of mutual respect and cooperation. He renewed Cuba's willingness to strengthen cooperation with the inter-governmental organization
