

License Given to U.S. Audiovisual Producer to Operate in Cuba

Fort Lauderdale, April 4 (RHC-CIN) -- The Office of Foreign Assets Control of the U.S. Department of the Treasury has granted a license for the U.S. production company, Cuba International Network, to operate on the island.

The U.S. company will be able to carry out activities in Cuba and do business with its Cuban counterpart RTV Commercial.

The company, based in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, had already been authorized to set up a store in Cuba to support audiovisual production for the U.S. and international markets.
