Havana, April 26 (RHC)-- Havana is hosting the 3rd Round of Migratory talks between Cuba and Colombia, aimed at guaranteeing legal, orderly and safe flows of migrants between the two nations.

Cuba's Deputy Foreign Minister Ana Teresita González said the meeting signals the good state of bilateral links.

A release by the Foreign Ministry said the sides are negotiating the signing of a memorandum of understanding that provides for strengthened actions in the common fight against human trafficking and other related crimes.
