

Australian Foreign Minister Arrives in Havana for Official Visit

Havana, June 30 (RHC)-- Australia's Minister for Foreign Affairs Julie Bishop arrived Thursday evening in Havana for an official visit.

During her stay, the distinguished visitor will fulfill a packed agenda that includes talks with Cuban authorities and visits to places of interest.

Cuba and Australia established diplomatic relations on January 31st, 1989.