

Trump Threatens NBC License over Nuclear Weapons Report

Washington, October 12 (RHC)-- U.S. President Donald Trump has threatened to retaliate against NBC, following NBC's report that Trump is seeking a tenfold increase in the United States' nuclear weapons arsenal.

On Wednesday, Trump tweeted: "With all of the Fake News coming out of NBC and the Networks, at what point is it appropriate to challenge their License? Bad for country!" The federal government licenses television airwaves through the FCC. Trump went on to tweet: "Network news has become so partisan, distorted and fake that licenses must be challenged and, if appropriate, revoked. Not fair to public!"

The threats drew immediate concerns Trump is undermining the First Amendment. Constitutional lawyer Floyd Abrams said: "The idea of any president saying that broadcast licenses ought to be at risk because he disapproves of their news coverage raises a really dangerous First Amendment issue. This is unadulterated Richard Nixon. And it's the most direct sort of threat to the First Amendment that President Trump has made since he was sworn in."
