

Cuban president to make a special TV appearance to discuss the island's energy situation

Havana, September 11 (RHC)-- Cuban President Miguel Díaz-Canel will address the nation Wednesday evening on the radio-television program Mesa Redonda, the Round Table. According to the announcement, carried by various local media outlets, the president will discuss measures that the country must adopt in view of the current energy situation.

The program will begin at 6:30 p.m., local time, and will be carried live by Cubavisión, Cubavisión Internacional, Canal Caribe, Radio Rebelde, Radio Habana Cuba, the Youtube channel of the Round Table and the Facebook pages of the Presidency.

Radio Havana Cuba's English language service will bring details of his address to our international audience.