

Sports News Roundup Dec. 19

Baseball

Matanzas, Granma, Isla de la Juventud, Artemisa and Industriales are already qualified for the second round of the 54th Cuban Baseball Series, however there are three positions left in dispute.

Industriales beat Ciego de Avila 1-0 but Villa Clara lost again to Matanzas and this gave the ticket to Industriales' 'Blues' and Isla de la Juventud to qualify for the next phase.

Pinar del Rio beat Holguin 13-4 and the team has yet to play five more games with the chance of winning a place among the eight in the standings of the qualifying board. Pinar del Rio has this advantage over the rest still running to qualify. So, fans expect high competitive games which close the regular phase on Friday.

Cuban Cyclist Alcolea Places 15 in Individual Time Trial in Costa Rica

Cuban cyclist Arnold Alcolea finished fifteenth in the fourth stage of the Costa Rica Tour, individual time trial run between San Joaquin and Carrizal cities.

Alcolea, who covered 11,3 miles in 33:49 minutes, was the best man of his team, as well as teammate José Mojica (21st with 34: 22 minutes), among the 87 cyclists involved in the contest.

According to the official website of the event, the fourth round was won by the local Rodolfo Villalobos (31:17), of the team Junta de Protección Social-Giant (JPS- Giant), followed by Josué Gonzalez (Coopenae Movistar Economy / 31: 29) and Roman Villalobos (JPS Giant / 31: 53), in that order.

Despite young Villalobos' win in the under 23 category, Juan Carlos Rojas (Frijoles Tierniticos-Arroz Halcon), also Costa Rican, remained on top of the general standings as he arrived at the finishing line in 32 : 00 minutes.

In this list, the best placed Cuban is Mojica, who comes 15 in the standings.

Meanwhile, Alcolea remained as leader of the intermediate sprints, with 19 units, but he lost three spots in the point race (35), after starting on Wednesday in second position.

With this performance, the national team of Cuba now appears fifth in an event led by the local club JPS- Giant.
