

Venezuelan President Nicolas Maduro Proposes Vatican to Join Operation Miracle's Expansion Project

Caracas, July 28 (RHC) -- Venezuelan President Nicolas Maduro has proposed that Pope Francis join the project for Operation Miracle's expansion to other countries around the world.

Operation Miracle -- a program promoted by Cuba and Venezuela -- is directed at aiding people with impaired vision, providing them free medical treatment, including eye surgeries.

The Venezuelan president said that with the support of the Vatican, Operation Miracle can be exponentially strengthened to improve the vision of people around the world.
