

Students Commemorate Anniversary of Fidel Castro's University of Havana Admission

Havana, August 31 (RHC) -- The 70th anniversary of Fidel Castro's admission into the University of Havana will be celebrated across Cuba, particularly by college students.

Jennifer Bello Martínez, president of the University Students Federation, said that on September 4th, every center of higher education in the country will mark the significant date, that in their eyes, makes the historical leader of the Cuban Revolution an eternal classmate.
