

Le Pen's Far-Right Party Wins 30% Vote in French Regional Elections

Paris, December 7 (RHC)-- In France, Marine Le Pen's far-right party, the National Front, secured 30 percent of the vote in the first round of regional elections on Sunday, marking a major boost for the anti-immigration party.

One poll showed the party coming in first place in at least six out of France's 13 regions. Recent polls have shown anti-immigration parties gaining support across Europe, including in Austria, Czech Republic, Holland, Poland, Slovakia, Sweden and Switzerland.
