

Cuba announces changes to telephone numbering

Havana, Oct 3, (RHC), – Phone operator Empresa de Telecomunicaciones de Cuba (Etecsa) has informed mobile telephony and alternative fixed telephony customers that from 15 October, there will be changes to the way of dialling from mobile phones to fixed ones.

From that date, the first zero will be eliminated when a dialling a fixed number. The remaining digits will stay the same, local media reported.