

Cuba and France Review State of Bilateral Cooperation Relations

Paris, May 12 (RHC)-- Rodrigo Malmierca, Cuban Minister for Foreign Trade and Investment is currently in Paris, where he has held a working meeting with Matthias Fekl, France's Minister of State for Foreign Trade, the Promotion of Tourism and French Nationals Abroad.

According to a communique issued by the French Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Development, during the meeting the sides reviewed the development of bilateral exchanges, particularly investment projects in Cuba involving companies of that European country.