

Miguel Diaz Canel Tours Facilities in the Province of Sancti Spiritus

Sancti Spiritus, July 25 (RHC)-- Cuban First Vice President Miguel Diaz-Canel toured cultural and trade facilities, as well as the CIMEX Corporation and tourism sites, in the province of Sancti Spiritus over the weekend.

Tomorrow commemorates the 63rd anniversary of the attack on the Moncada in Santiago de Cuba and Carlos Manuel de Cespedes in Bayamo.

In Sancti Spiritus province, in the town of Yayabo, the Cuban first vice president visited the trade and gastronomy centers, as well as the Chocolate House and the Shanghai restaurant.

There were also activities at work places and the recognition of outstanding workers, whose efforts contributed to the selection of the province as the national leader for July 26th this year.
