

Venezuelan Parliament President Stresses Unity of Bolivarian Revolution

Caracas, January 6 (RHC)-- The president of the Venezuelan Parliament Diosdado Cabello stressed in Caracas the growing unity of the Bolivarian Revolution and the people forged by the legacy of late Venezuelan leader Hugo Chavez.

During a ceremony to render tribute to the Bolivarian leader at the Mountain Barracks, which treasure the mortal remains of Hugo Chavez, Cabello said that the guidelines given by Chavez on December 8, 2012 are being followed by the people and government.

Cabello noted that the strength of the Bolivarian project was evidenced by the victory at the December 8th municipal elections and in the fact that most Parliament deputies are followers of Hugo Chavez.

The top parliamentarian told the opposition parties that Chavez will always remain in the hearts of the Venezuelan people and called to be alert to face new aggressions by the right wing, because they will continue to conspire against the revolution.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/10475-venezuelan-parliament-president-stresses-unity-of-bolivarian-revolution>

Radio Habana Cuba