

Cuba Signs Contract for Purchasing of Railway Cars from Russia

Moscow, November 10 (RHC/Prensa Latina)-- Cuba will be buying passenger cars from Russia as part of its railway development program.

Diplomatic sources in Moscow said the Russian company Tvervagonnostroitelny Zavod and the Cuban Tradex had signed a contract for Russian supply of 68 railway cars. The signing of the accord took place in the context of the official visit to Russia by Cuban Transportation Vice Minister Eduardo Rodriguez.

The Russian side described the signing as a display of readiness on the part of Russia to effectively participate in the Cuba's economic and social development.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/nacionales/111709-cuba-signs-contract-for-purchasing-of-railway-cars-from-russia>

Radio Habana Cuba