

Angolan Vice President Arrives in Havana for Tribute to Fidel

Havana, December 2 (RHC)-- Angolan Vice President Manuel Vicente has arrived in Havana to attend homage ceremonies to Fidel Castro, to take place in the eastern Cuban city of Santiago de Cuba.

The Angolan official signed the Book of Condolences opened at the Foreign Ministry, where he was received by Deputy Foreign Minister Rogelio Sierra.

The Angolan vice president, in his note of condolences, praised the participation of Cuba and its historic leader in the independence of Angola.
