

Foreign Affairs Minister of Eritrea Highlights Solidarity and Internationalism of Fidel Castro

Havana, December 6 (RHC)-- Foreign Affairs Minister of Eritrea Osman Saleh, confirmed the internationalism and solidarity of Cuban Revolution leader Fidel Castro, who died November 25th in Havana, aged 90.

In writing on the book of condolences at the Cuban Foreign Ministry, Minister Saleh commended Cuba's and Fidel's contribution to the liberation of several African countries and the Caribbean country's subsequent cooperation in such areas as health, education and agriculture.

"Eritrea has been saddened by the death of this great leader, Comandante en Jefe Fidel Castro", the foreign minister of the African country wrote.

After observing a minute of silence in tribute to Fidel, Minister Saleh said Fidel's revolutionary impression will last long in his country.
