

Obama Launches Task Force on Campus Sexual Assault

Washington, January 25 (RHC)-- U.S. President Barack Obama has launched a new task force to combat sexual assault on college campuses.

A new White House report says one in five women college students have been sexually assaulted at school, but just 12 percent notify police.

The task force will reportedly be asked to lay out goals for increasing rates of arrests, prosecutions and convictions.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/12475-obama-launches-task-force-on-campus-sexual-assault>

Radio Habana Cuba