

Prime Minister of the Republic of Congo Arrives in Cuba to Strengthen Friendship Ties

Havana, April 13 (RHC) -- Congolese Prime Minister Clemént Mouámba has arrived in Cuba on an official visit with the aim of strengthening ties of friendship between the two countries.

Upon his arrival in Havana, Mouamba said that his trip is in response to an invitation from Cuban President Raul Castro.

As part of his official visit to Cuba, the Congolese prime minister will hold talks with Cuban authorities and leaders, and will carry out other activities.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/nacionales/126988-prime-minister-of-the-republic-of-congo-arrives-in-cuba-to-strengthen-friendship-ties>

Radio Habana Cuba