

Chucho Valdes and Concha Buika in Concert in Spain

Madrid, Jul 1 (Prensa Latina) Cuban piano player, composer and arranger Jesus 'Chucho' Valdes and Spanish-Guinean origin female singer Concha Buika will offer a joint concert as part of the performances for Noches del Botanico (Nights of the Botanic Garden) Festival in Spain.

The presentation at the Alfonso XIII Royal Botanic Garden of Madrid's Complutense University is a new chance for both artists to share the stage.

Buika and Chucho Valdes have collaborated and performed together several times. Perhaps the most remembered occasion, was when both recorded the CD 'El Ultimo Trago' (The Last Drink), that won them the Latin Grammy Award in the category of Best Tropical Traditional Album.

The Nights of the Botanic Garden Festival concludes on July 26, organized for the lovers of all kinds of music, so the program gathers artists from all musical trends, including pop, rock, and so-called 'world music'.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/cultura/134314-chucho-valdes-and-concha-buika-in-concert-in-spain>

Radio Habana Cuba