

Visiting Venezuelan President Nicolas Maduro Seen Off by Raul Castro

Havana, September 25 (RHC) – Cuban President Raul Castro saw off his Venezuelan counterpart Nicolás Maduro in Havana on Sunday.

During his visit to the Caribbean nation, Maduro, on behalf of his people, gave a donation to help the victims after the passage of Hurricane Irma through Cuban territory.

Vice President of the Councils of State and Ministers, Ramiro Valdés Menéndez, also went to Jose Marti International Airport to accompany President Maduro and the Venezuelan delegation.
