

Angolan President Joao Lourenço Receives Cuban First Vice President Miguel Díaz-Canel

Luanda, September 27 (RHC-Granma)-- Angolan President Joao Lourenço received Cuba's First Vice President Miguel Díaz-Canel, who participated in the new leader's inauguration ceremonies at the head of a Cuban delegation.

During the meeting, the two leaders recalled the historic ties of friendship shared by the people and governments of Cuba and Angola, reaffirming their intention of expanding political, economic and cooperative relations.

Díaz-Canel conveyed greetings and congratulations from President Raúl Castro, and thanked Angola for the position the country has always taken in support of lifting the economic, commercial, financial blockade imposed by the United States against Cuba.

For his part, the Angolan President thanked Cuba for attending and sent his greetings to his Cuban counterpart.

Accompanying President Lourenço were Foreign Minister Georges Rebelo Pinto Chikoti, and other officials.

On the Cuban side, also participating were Deputy Foreign Minister Ana Teresita González Fraga, and the country's ambassador in Angola, Gisela Beatriz García Rivera.
