

Business Administration and Management Meeting Takes Place in Havana

Havana, October 11 (RHC)-- The Second International Meeting of Business Administration and Management began Wednesday and runs through Friday, the 13th in Havana with the participation of 300 experts.

At the event, specialists from Cuba, Ecuador, Mexico, Colombia and Nicaragua will exchange knowledge and experiences in this area.

According to the organizers, the meeting will focus debates on economic efficiency, local development, as well as business systems and foreign investment.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/nacionales/144094-business-administration-and-management-meeting-takes-place-in-havana>

Radio Habana Cuba