

Cuba and France Sign Academic Cooperation Accord

Paris, February 6 (RHC)-- Cuba's Ambassador to France Elio Rodríguez and the Rector of the Paris Academy Gilles Pécout signed an agreement aimed at strengthening educational, linguistic and academic cooperation.

Signed at the headquarters of the Paris-Sorbonne University, the accord provides also for cooperation in technical and professional training and promotes exchanges between young people in both countries.

At the signing ceremony, the two sides further recognized the positive state of academic and educational exchanges between France and Cuba and pledged to work toward further strengthening them.
