

Italian neo-Nazi shoots six African migrants in drive-by shooting

Rome, Feb 8 (RHC)-- In Italy, a suspected neo-Nazi shot six African migrants in a series of drive-by shootings in the city of Macerata.

The gunman has been identified as Luca Traini, an Italian man who has a neo-Nazi tattoo above his eye. Last year, he ran for office as a member of the far-right League Party, which has been projected to make major gains in next month's Italian election.
