

Cuba and Namibia to Look for New Business Opportunities

Havana, February 25 (RHC) — Cuba and Namibia will examine new strategies for the promotion of business and cooperation, during the visit to Cuba of Hage G. Geingob, Prime Minister of the Republic of Namibia. A series of meetings of entrepreneurs and government officials from both countries have the prime objective of briefing the visiting delegation on the recent reforms undertaken by Cuba's economy.

According to diplomatic sources, the Namibian delegation has expressed interest in establishing cooperation in key areas such as energy, health care and education.

The Prime Minister is also slated to meet with Cuban First Vice President Miguel Diaz Canel and other government officials.
