

Venezuela: Main Opposition to Support Falcon's Presidential Bid

Caracas, April 4 (RHC)-- Claudio Fermin, head of Henri Falcon's Venezuelan presidential campaign, said leaders of the Venezuelan opposition representing the Democratic Unity Roundtable, or MUD, will support Falcon's candidacy in the upcoming presidential election.

At a press conference Tuesday, he said the opposition group has concluded that abstention is not an option, stressing that the "only peaceful way out" of the political crisis plaguing the South American country is to participate in the presidential election and vote.
