

Jewish Activists in Boston, New York Arrested Protesting Israel's Killing of Palestinian Protesters

New York, April 11 (RHC)-- In the United States, Jewish activists with the group "If Not Now" staged protests in multiple cities, including in New York City, where seven activists were arrested at New York Democratic Senator Chuck Schumer's office, demanding he speak out about the Israeli army's killing of Palestinian protesters.

Eight activists were also arrested in Boston protesting at the Israeli Consulate.
