

Hunger Strike Launched at Supermax Prison in Colorado

Denver, March 1 (RHC)-- Solitary Watch is reporting eight to nine prisoners held at a supermax prison in the U.S. city of Florence, Colorado are on hunger strike and are being force-fed.

More than 400 prisoners at the super max prison spend between 22 to 24 hours a day locked alone in concrete "boxcar" cells without access to a window.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/16098-hunger-strike-launched-at-supermax-prison-in-colorado>

Radio Habana Cuba