

Cuba Represented at International Tourism Fair in Berlin

Berlin, March 5 (RHC)-- The International Tourism Fair (ITF) begins in Berlin today in the presence of official delegations from 100 countries, tour-operators, travel agencies, airlines, and thousands of visitors.

The meeting, to run until Sunday, March 9th at the International Congress Center (ICC) in the German capital, is being attended by a Cuban delegation led by Deputy Tourism Minister Xiomara Martinez.

The opening of ITF marks the beginning of an intensive program of activities the Caribbean island will develop in Berlin until March 9th, including official meetings with local authorities, tour-operators, specialized mass media, and Condor and Air Berlin airlines.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/nacionales/16427-cuba-represented-at-international-tourism-fair-in-berlin>

Radio Habana Cuba