

Occupy ICE protesters decry Trump immigration policies

Washington, June 30 (RHC)-- Protests against Trump's immigration policies continue to rage across the country. In Washington, D.C., police set up metal barricades around the headquarters of ICE—Immigration and Customs Enforcement as scores of activists chanted, "Quit your jobs!"

Similar protests organized under the hashtag #OccupyICE continued to play out in San Diego; Philadelphia; Detroit; Portland, Oregon; and New York City. In Tornillo, Texas, hundreds of protesters marched toward the new immigration detention tent city for children, before they were turned around by a rancher who brandished a pistol.
