

At Deutsche Bank, Anthony Kennedy's son loaned Donald Trump $1 billion

New York, July 5 (RHC)-- New revelations show the close financial ties between U.S. President Donald Trump and Supreme Court Justice Anthony Kennedy's son, Justin Kennedy, who served as the global head of real estate capital markets for Deutsche Bank.

The New York Times reports that under Justin Kennedy's leadership, Deutsche Bank loaned Donald Trump $1 billion for renovation and construction of buildings in New York and Chicago, at a time when many other banks refused to lend to Trump because of his troubled financial history.
