

London mayor approves “Trump Baby” Blimp at July 13th protest

London, July 9 (RHC)-- London Mayor Sadiq Khan has announced that protesters will be allowed to float a giant balloon caricature of Donald Trump outside Parliament later this week as the U.S. president makes a visit to the United Kingdom.

The 20-foot-long “Trump blimp” depicts the president as an angry orange baby, wearing a diaper and clutching a cellphone, ready to tweet. Protesters, including Stop Trump activist Shaista Aziz, say hundreds of thousands of people are expected to march against Trump and his policies during Friday’s visit.

Shaista Aziz told reporters in London: “And what we say to Donald Trump is, ‘You’re very welcome. Please come. Come and see the carnival of resistance. See it for yourself, hear it for yourself and feel it for yourself. And if you don’t show up this time, the next time you show up, we’re going to be here. We’re waiting for you.’”
