

Accuser Says U.S. Army General Forced Sexual Contact, Threatened to Kill Her

Fort Bragg, March 11 (RHC)-- The trial of a U.S. Army general accused of sexual assault continues at Fort Bragg in North Carolina. The alleged victim in the case, an Army captain, testified Brigadier General Jeffrey Sinclair twice forced her to perform oral sex during their three-year affair in Afghanistan, and threatened to kill her and her family if she revealed the affair.

She said Sinclair had forced her head into his lap as she cried. The general's defense is cross-examining the U.S. Army captain in a military court in North Carolina.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/17047-accuser-says-us-army-general-forced-sexual-contact-threatened-to-kill-her>

Radio Habana Cuba