

Book on Fidel Castro presented at closing session of young Cuban artists' congress

Havana, October 18 (RHC)-- The book 'Fidel and the Hermanos Saíz Association' was presented in Havana in the framework of the 3rd congress of the organization, which groups young Cuban artists and creators.

Written by Cuban Elier Ramírez and published by Casa Editora Abril publishing house, the text compiles previously unpublished remarks by the Revolution leader on two separate meetings with young Cuban artists on March 12, 1988 and October 18, 2001.

Delegates at 3rd congress of the Hermanos Saíz Association are debating the role of culture in today's Cuba.
