

Amigas back on the stage of Cuba's most important theater

The musical Amigas will go back to Havana's Karl Marx Theater as of April 10 with a renovated version directed and choreographed by maestra Liza Alfonso.

Remarkable changes will be enjoyed by audiences in this Liza Alfonso Dance Cuba show which has successfully toured Hamburg, Germany, where it premiered in 2011; the Kingdom of Bahrain; the Karl Marx Theater and the main stages in five Cuban provinces. Rehearsals are currently underway and the finishing touches are being put to AMIGAS in the company's studios with the effort of dancers, musicians, singers and other very special guests that will be part of this renovated heart-breaking story of reencounters, forgiveness and friendship.

New performers and roles appear in this revival of AMIGAS: young Cuban singer Geidy Chapman will make her debut in the role of Regla (in which she will alternate with known singer Sory); Lisset Ledezma and Marino Luzardo will play live the part of the announcer of the TV show Música y Estrellas (Music and Stars), and Osvaldo Doimeadiós will be the coordinator and the assistant director of the current staging. Also debuting will be dancers Bibiana Peláez, Yaira Yasell and Jerlandys Milian. Singers Yaíma Sáez and Niurka Reyes, and principal dancers Claudia Valdivia, Oddebi García and Joan Morell will stay in this version's cast.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/cultura/18224-amigas-back-on-the-stage-of-cubas-most-important-theater>

Radio Habana Cuba