

White supremacist in U.S. arrested with weapons and hit list

Baltimore, February 22 (RHC)-- In the U.S. state of Maryland, an active-duty Coast Guard lieutenant has been arrested after federal investigators uncovered a domestic terror plot to kill high-profile liberal figures including Democratic lawmakers, media personalities and judges.

Forty-nine-year-old Christopher Paul Hasson, a self-described white nationalist, reportedly had a stockpile of 15 guns and more than 1,000 rounds of ammunition. His "hit list" included House Speaker Nancy Pelosi, civil rights pioneer Angela Davis, freshman Congressmembers Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez and Ilhan Omar, MSNBC host Chris Hayes and Democratic presidential hopefuls Senators Kirsten Gillibrand, Elizabeth Warren, Cory Booker and Kamala Harris, among others.

Hasson was reportedly inspired by the far-right Norwegian terrorist Anders Breivik, who in 2011 killed 77 people in a bomb attack and a mass shooting. In a draft e-mail obtained by prosecutors, Hasson wrote: "I am dreaming of a way to kill almost every last person on the earth."

Court documents revealed that Paul Hasson wanted to "establish a white homeland."
