

Russia warns of false flag chemical attack in Syria's Idlib

Moscow, April 27 (RHC)-- Russia has once again warned that al-Qaeda-inspired terrorists and the Western-backed White Helmets "aid" group are gearing up for a false flag chemical attack in Syria's Idlib Province, the last major militant stronghold in the Arab state.

Maria Zakharova, the Russian Foreign Ministry spokeswoman, said that terrorists with the Jabhat Fatah al-Sham, better known as al-Nusra Front, "along with the White Helmets, are preparing for further provocations aimed at accusing the legitimate government in Syria of using poisonous substances.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/189389-russia-warns-of-false-flag-chemical-attack-in-syrias-idlib>

Radio Habana Cuba