

Outstanding American journalist dies in Havana, aged 87

Prensa Latina

Havana, June 29 (RHC)--US born journalist Lionel Martin, who served as a correspondent in Cuba for several press organizations in the United States and other Western countries, died in Havana Friday evening, at the age of 87.

His remains were incinerated on Saturday.

As a foreign correspondent, Lionel Martin covered the events of the Cuban Revolution and disseminated Cuba's reality through telegraphic, radio and TV outlets in his country and around the world.

He worked also at Prensa Latina News Agency, with central offices in the Cuban capital.

Lionel Martin's death has caused deep sorrow in Cuban press circles and among foreign correspondents accredited on the island, who will always remember him, particularly his strong commitment to truth.

Radio Habana Cuba