

Mexican top sports official praises Cuba

Havana, July 8 (RHC)--Ana Gabriela Guevara, Director of the Mexico's National Commission of Physical Culture and Sports (CONADE), described as very fruitful her working visit to Cuba, where she held meetings with domestic sports authorities.

Before returning to her country on Monday she told the press that the goals of her trip to the Caribbean island were met, as she could analyze with her counterparts how to continue and strengthen the sports cooperation between both nations.

The Athens 2004 Olympic runner-up in the women's 400 meters, also stressed the admiration she feels for the Cuban people and she recalled how she was warmly welcomed when she trained on the island

She also took the opportunity to wish the Cuban delegation success during the upcoming 18th Pan American Games to take place in Lima, Peru, from July 26 to August 11.
