

Cuba at the elite of Triple Jump

Triple hop, step and jump athlete Liadagmis Povea, with 14,71m ended up second behind World Champion Venezuelan Yulimar Rojas during the latest meeting of the Diamond League in Monaco.

Povea adds this result to her achievement from five days ago, when with a personal best of 14,77 she finished 3rd behind world's greatest Caterine Ibarguen and Yulimar Rojas.

After this result in Monaco, the 23-year old Pinar del Rio native has qualified for the League finals in Brussels, Belgium.
