

Latin America solidarity brigade concludes its work program in Cuba

Havana, August (RHC)-- The 26th Latin American Brigade for Volunteer Work and Solidarity with Cuba wound up its work program on Friday. As they left Havana, the brigadistas expressed their support for the Cuban Revolution in the face of U.S. aggression.

According to Prensa Latina news agency, over a hundred activists came from Colombia, Haiti, Mexico, Peru, Dominican Republic, Panama, Nicaragua, Martinique, El Salvador and Ecuador.

They were bid farewell at the Julio Antonio Mella International Camp Friday evening, after they toured several provinces and participated in the national Day of National Rebellion event in Bayamo, last July 26th.

The Cuban Institute of Friendship with the Peoples (ICAP), host of the brigade, invited the brigadistas to participate in the Continental Meeting of Solidarity, for Democracy and against Neoliberalism, which will be held in Havana from November 1st to 3rd.

Radio Habana Cuba