

Friendly Volleyball matches between Cuba and Dominican Republic

Havana, August 15 (RHC) – Men's Volleyball teams of Cuba and Dominican Republic will hold a series of exhibition matches with the aim of preparing for the upcoming North, Central-America and the Caribbean Volleyball Confederation tournament.

Alexis Garcia, president of the Dominican Volleyball Federation, said the matches will be held in the Dominican capital Santo Domingo, from August 15 to 19. Garcia also confirmed that Cuba will bring to Santo Domingo the exact same team that won the Silver medal in Lima 2019 Pan-Am Games.

Alexis Garcia mentioned the importance of these matches for the Dominican team, as they will face one of the best squads in the area.
